European Youth Olympic Festival (EYOF) 2022, Vuokatti (FIN)

Eligibility and team:

Athletes born 2003-2004 are eligible to compete.

A maximum of four (4) men and four (4) women will be selected from a Pre-list of eight (8) men and eight (8) women. Selected athletes will start in both individual events (SL, PSL). Coaching staff on site, based on current form and performance in individual competitions, will select four (4) athletes, two (2) men and two (2) ladies, to participate in the Team Event.

Ski Sport Finland (SSF) will propose Athletes to be selected, based on the selection criteria below, to the National Olympic Committee (NOC) High Performance Unit. In order to be selected, an athlete must be on the Pre-list. Final team selection is made by NOC according to the NOC selection criteria, NOC general eligibility and SSF proposal.

Coaching staff (3 coaches /service) will be selected from Alpine Acadamies' (Vuokatti-Ruka, Tahko, Levi) and/or National Team Coaches by SSF Sport or Executive Director. A Team lead for Alpine operation will be selected. Staff members need to meet NOC general eligibility.

Selection criteria and priority;

1. World Cup-points season 2021-2022
2. European-cup points season 2021-2022
3. For all remaining quota; Athletes will be ranked on two (2) best slalom results (avg. FIS points) of season 2021-2022 presented before or on March 6th, 2022.
4. Coaches evaluation and decision

Process and timeline:

November 3rd, 2021
Selection criteria confirmed

January 5th
Athletes (8 men, 8 women) will be placed on the Pre-list based on criteria above. Athletes will be notified of possible selection.

March 6th
Selection period ends. SSF will notify selected athletes and ask them to confirm their participation in EYOF 2022. If an athlete does not confirm the next best athlete in the ranking will be offered a selection.

March 7th
SSF will propose a Team to NOC who will confirm the Team.

March 18th
EYOF Pre Camp start date and arrival to Vuokatti

March 21st
EYOF 2022 Alpine competition begins

--Exeutive Director--